INDEX TO VOL. LXXVI

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ACT

ACTORS, English, The Economic Position of, 638–642
Ady (Mrs.), Venetian Scholars and their Gardens, 837–852
Afforestation and Timber Planting in Ireland, 643–659
Africa, German and English settlements in, 580–594, 958–979
Africa, North, A Naturalist in, 1343–1352
Aircraft Bombs and International Law, 1032–1038
Albania, Some Recent Experiences in, 458–467
Alsace-Lorraine and the War, 1395–1406
America and the War, 1283–1295
American Humour, 444–457
Angell (Norman) and International Arbitration League, 901–917
Anglo-German-American Alliance, An, 51–58
Arbitration and international law of war, 1296–1306
Army, Our Dwindling, 249–255
At Compiègne, 853–867
Athenian and British Democracy: a Parallel, 478–488
Atlantic cables and wireless, All-British, 233–248
Austria-Hungary and German expansion, 299–306
Austria-Hungary, The Ultimate Disappearance of, 1003–1031
Austrian Archduke Franz Ferdinand, 281–298
Axham (Dr.), The Case of, 1227–1239

BADEN-POWELL (Sir Robert), Boy Scouts and the War, 691–701
Balkan Wars, The Principal Lesson of the, 59–75
Bank-notes and gold coinage, 1039–46

BRI

Barclay (Sir Thomas), The Floating Mines Curse, 745–752; Aircraft Bombs and International Law, 1032–1038; Ruthless Warfare and Forbidden Methods, 1186–92
Barker (J. Ellis), The Ultimate Ruin of Germany, 525–551; The Ultimate Disappearance of Austria-Hungary, 1003–1031
Barnave, Marie Antoinette and, 350–372
Beet-sugar manufacture in England, 868–882, 1101–1112, 1353–1359.
Belgian wounded and flight from Ostend, 1159–1166
Belgians, Walloons, Flemings, and Liège, 595–602
Belgium, How she saved England, 1167–1176
Belgium in War, 1147–1158
Bentham and Etienne Dumont, 415–428
Bernhardi (General von) on the Moral Logic of War, 1360–1376
Blake (Lady), The Sacred Bo Tree, 660–673
Blake (Sir Henry), A Word for Colonial Cane Sugar, 1095–1100
Blane (William), Tsingtau and its Significance, 1213–1226
Bo Tree, The Sacred, 660–673
Bosville (Diana), her 'Book of Extracts,' 192–216
Bourget (Paul), his latest work of fiction, 1047–1059
Boy Scouts, The Practical Utility of the, during the War, 691–701
Bradley (Rose M.), At Compiègne, 853–867
Brend (William A.) on a State Medical Service: a Reply to, 394–406; With the Wounded at Ostend, 1159–1166
Bright (Charles), Wanted: an Inter-Imperial Telegraph Link, 233–248

BRI

Britain, The Awakening of, 918–931
British Antarctic Exploration and Sir Ernest Shackleton's Prospects of Success, 166–180
British prisoner's experiences in Germany, 782–792

CARLISLE (Bishop of), The Inner Meaning of the War, 730–737; War and Arbitration, 1296–1306
Carlyle (Alexander), More New Letters of Jane Welsh Carlyle, 317–349
Ceylon, sacred trees and Buddhist temples, 660–673
Chatterton-Hill (Dr. Georges), The Royalist Revival, 29–50
Cheap Catering, Experiments in, 1123–1137
Christianity in India, The Progress of, 468–477
Church in France, The, Does she play any active part? 13–28
Civil War, A Vision of, 268–280
Clark (Dr. G. B.), The Land Problem in the Highlands, 131–137
Cloriston (Henry), Athenian and British Democracy: a Parallel, 478–488
Colonial Cane or Home-Grown Beet? 1353–1359
Colonial Cane Sugar, A Word for, 1095–1100
Colonial contingents for British forces, 702–712
Colonial Empire, German and English ideas contrasted, 941–957
Commerce as affected by wars, 1193–1206
Commercial and Financial Outlook, The: a City Man's Views, 800–815
Coulton (G. G.), Pacifism, Truth and Commonsense, 908–917
Courtney (Mrs. W. L.), A New Labour Exchange, 631–637
Currency Revolution, The, 1039–1046
Currey (Commander E. Hamilton), The Menace of the Torpedo, 153–165

DELL (Anthony), Some Recent Experiences in Albania, 458–467
Democracy, Athenian and British: a Parallel, 478–488
'Démon de Midi, Le,' 1047–1059
Dimnet (Abbé Ernest), Does the Church play any active part in France? 13–28; 'Qui Vive?'—'France, Quand Même!' (1) Before the Battles; (2) The Rising Generation in France, 552–579
Diplomatic Centenary, A, 1377–1394
Dominions, The, and the War, 702–712

FRE

Drinkwater (John), Theodore Watts Dunton and the Spirit of an Age, 674–685
Dumont (Etienne), English Letters to, 415–428
Dunn (S. G.), Some Considerations on the Self, 1331–1342
Dutch opinion of German ideals, 1207–1212

EARLY Victorian Schoolroom to University, From, 1060–1073
Eastern and Western theories of music compared, 1074–1094
Electric marvels: the telephone, 373–383
Electrical hypothesis concerning human physiology, 101–130
Emigration and colonisation, English and German, 958–979
Emigration, The Ethics of, 893–907
Emily Lawless, 80–100
England, How Belgium saved her, 1167–1176
England's ordeal and its lessons, 489–510
English and the Others—through Polish Eyes, 603–615
English girls and boys as 'home-rulers,' 181–191
English in India, Hindu view, 76–79
Englishman's adventures in Albania, 458–467
Erasmus, More, and Renaissance in Louvain, 765–775
European Federation and prevention of wars, 59–75
European War, Story of its origin, 980–1002
Eversley (Lord), Marie Antoinette and Barnave, 350–372
Evolution in plants and experiments in variation, 816–836
Exclusion the only Compromise, 1–12

FARMERS, our food-supply, and the War, 686–690
Figgis (Darrell), Charles Stewart Parnell, 217–227
Floating Mines Curse, 745–752
Food supply and cheap cookery, 1123–1137
France and her Future, 13–50
France and the Royalists, 29–50
France, The Rising Generation in, 560–579
French art collections: the Louvre, 407–414
French Constitutionalists and Marie-Antoinette, 350–372

FRE

French Government and Catholic Church, 13–28
French tactics under Gribeauval and Napoleon, 1271–1282
Frodsham (Bishop), German 'Kultur' from a Dutch Point of View, 1207–12
Fuller (Sir Bampfylde) on alliance with Germany, Reply to, 51–58; Ideals—German and others, 1307–17
Funeral March for Kaiser Wilhelm II., 932–940

GASCOYNE-CECIL (Rev. Lord William), Is the House of Commons just? 228–232
General Medical Council and Dr. Axham, 1227–1239
Georgian Scrap-Book, A, 192–216
German and British official papers concerning the War, 980–1002
German Colonies and British Needs, 958–967
German Colony, The First, 968–979
German ideals of world-empire, 713–736, 1307–1317
German Imperial-Colonial Blunder, The, 941–957
German 'Kultur' from a Dutch Point of View, 1207–1212
German militarism and British imperialism, 702–712; and moral deterioration, 776–781
German oversea trade and tariff reform, 883–892
German People, The 'Guiltless,' 793–799
German South-West Africa and Walfish Bay, 580–594
German war-methods and Hague Regulations, 1147–1158, 1186–1192
German War, The, and its Consequences, 511–524
Germanising of Austria-Hungary, 1003–1031
Germans, Russians, Poles, and English compared, 603–615
Germany, Russia, and Austria-Hungary, 299–306
Germany, The Ultimate Ruin of: a Retrospect and a Prospect, 525–551
Germany To-day: Some Experiences and Impressions of a Civil Prisoner of War, 782–792
'God's Test by War': a Forecast and its Fulfilment, 489–510
Goldman (C. S.), What is Wrong with the Telephone? 373–383
Gore-Booth (Eva), Women's Wages and the Laws of Supply and Demand, 384–393

ITA

Great Britain, Bismarck, and modern Germany, 525–551
Greek politics, Pisistratus, Pericles, and modern democracies, 478–488
Guyot (Yves), The Waste of the War and the Trade of To-morrow, 1193–1206

HAGUE Conventions and air bombs, 1032–1038
Hague Regulations and German methods of war, 1186–1192
Haigh (Mrs.), The Music of India: a Classic Art, 1074–1094
Happy Warrior, The, 1177–1185
Harrison (Alfred H.), British Antarctic Exploration and Sir Ernest Shackleton's Prospects of Success, 166–180
Higher professions committee and employment of women, 631–637
Highland clearances in Sutherlandshire, 131–137
Hindu Guru's Views of the Political Situation in India, 76–79
History, The Logic of, 713–729
Holland, her difficulties as a neutral power, 745–752
House of Commons, The: is it just? 228–232
Humorous writers of America, 444–457
Hungarian Magyars, non-Magyars, and Austrian misrule, 1003–1031

'IDEAL ALLIANCE, An': a Reply to Sir Bampfylde Fuller, 51–58
Ideals—German and others, 1307–1317
India and Christianity, 1331–1342
India, The Music of, 1074–1094
India, The Political Situation in: a Hindu Guru's Views of, 76–79
India, The Progress of Christianity in, 468–477
Inner Meaning of the War, 730–736
Inter-Imperial Telegraph Link, Wanted an, 233–248
International Law, Aircraft Bombs and, 1032–1038
Ireland, Afforestation and Timber Planting in, 643–659
Irish Danger, The, 256–280
Irish Home Rule and exclusion of Ulster, 1–12
Irish Nationalists and Parnell, 217–227
Irish woman-poet, Emily Lawless, 80–100
Italian Renaissance and Venetian gardens, 837–852

JAM

JAMES (Lionel), A Vision of Civil War, 268–280
Jane Welsh Carlyle, More New Letters of, 317–349
Jennings (H. J.), The Commercial and Financial Outlook, 800–815; The Currency Revolution, 1039–1046
Johnston (Sir Harry H.), Germany, Russia, and Austria-Hungary, 299–306; The German War and its Consequences, 511–524; America and the War: a Symposium, 1283–1295
Johnston (R. M.), What could Napoleon accomplish to-day? 1271–1282

KAISER Wilhelm's funeral march, 932–940
Keene (Col. A.), The Happy Warrior, 1177–1185
Kenealy (Arabella), Is Man an Electric Organism? 101–130
Kennedy (J. M.), The War and the Tariff Question, 883–892
Kiaochau and the fall of Tsingtau, 1213–1226
Kingston (Gertrude), Our Autocrats, 181–191
Kinloch-Cooke (Lady), Letters from Paris and Soissons a Hundred Years Ago, 1240–1270
Kinloch-Cooke (Sir Clement), The Ethics of Emigration, 893–907
Kropotkin (Prince), Inherited Variation in Plants, 816–836

LABOUR Exchange, A New, 631–637
Land Problem in the Highlands, The: a Reply to Mr. Mallock, 131–137
Land Question, Thoughts on the, 138–152
Lathbury (D. C.), Exclusion the only Compromise, 1–12; How Belgium saved England, 1167–1176
Leacock (Prof. Stephen), American Humour, 444–457
Lewin (Evans), The First German Colony, 968–979
Liberalism and tyranny of the Caucus, 307–316
Liège and the Liégeois, 595–602
Lilly (W. S.), A Vanishing Virtue, 429–443; 'Le Démon de Midi,' 1047–1059
Little Englanders and Prussian militarism, 793–799
Louis XV. and Compiègne, 853–867
Louvain, The Humanists of, 765–775
Louvre, The, Enlarged, 407–414
Lutheranism and the War, 1318–1330

MACDONALD (William), The Destiny of Walfish Bay, 580–594
Mallock (W. H.) on Highland clearances: Reply to, 131–137; General von Bernhardi on the Moral Logic of War, 1360–1376
Man, Is he an Electric Organism? 101–130
Marie Antoinette and Barnave, 350–372
Maritime war and Prize Courts, 1138–1146
Marriott (J. A. R.), The Logic of History, 713–729; Some Issues of the War: A Diplomatic Centenary, 1377–1394
Maude (Col. F. N.), The Awakening of Britain, 918–931
Maynard (Constance L.), From Early Victorian Schoolroom to University, 1060–1073
Mid-Victorian poetry and Watts-Dunton, 674–685
Military instincts of British race, 918–931
Military training for national defence, 908–917
Mines in war and rights of neutrals, 745–752
Missions in India, 468–477
Monarchists and democrats in France, 29–50
Morgan (Professor J. H.), Treitschke, 776–781
Murdered Archduke, The, 281–298
Music of India, The, 1074–1094

NAPOLEON, What could he accomplish to-day? 1271–1282
'National Medical Service, A': a Reply to Dr. Brend, 394–406
National Relief Fund and unemployment, 737–744
National training for Home Defence, 249–255
Naturalist in North Africa, A, 1343–52
Naval warfare and torpedoes, 153–165
Neutral Neighbour, Our Nearest, and the War, 753–764
Nisbet (J.), Afforestation and Timber Planting in Ireland, 643–659
Nolan (R. S.), Germany To-day; Some Experiences and Impressions of a Civil Prisoner of War, 782–792; The Responsibility for the War: German and British Official Papers compared, 980–1002

OBEDIENCE the foundation of social evolution, 429–443
Osborn (E. B.), The Dominions and the War, 702–712

OST

Ostend, With the Wounded at, 1159–66
Our Autocrats, 181–191
Oversea Dominions and State-aided emigration, 893–907
Oversea Possessions, Our Enemy's, 958–979

PACIFISM, Truth, and Commonsense, 908–917
Paris and Soissons, Letters from, a Hundred Years Ago, 1240–1270
Parnell (Charles Stewart), 217–227
Parthenogenesis and evolution of sex, 616–630
Paterson (Arthur), War Funds: Co-ordination or Chaos? 737–744
Pearson (Norman), Sex after Death, 616–630
Piggott (Sir Francis), The German Imperial-Colonial Blunder, 941–957
Plants, Inherited Variation in, 816–836
Poel (William), The Economic Position of English Actors, 638–642
Polish view of Anglo-Saxons, Teutons, and Slavs, 603–615
Political Octopus, The: a Plea for True Liberalism in Politics, 307–316
Pollock (Lieut.-Col. Alsager), 'An Ideal Alliance': a Reply to Sir Bampfylde Fuller, 51–58
Price (Capt. W. Cecil), The Practical Utility of the Boy Scouts during the War, 691–701
Prize Court of Great Britain and Ireland, The, 1138–1146
Prussian ambitions and Germany as a world-power, 713–729

'QUI Vive?' — 'France Quand Même!' (1) Before the Battles; (2) The Rising Generation in France, 552–579

REAL estate and land-bursting campaign, 138–152
Religions and the War, 1318–1330
Responsibility for the War, The, 980–1002
Responsibility, The: the Irish Danger, 256–267
Rhys (Ernest), Liège and the Liégeois, 595–602
Ridgeway (Sir West), The Irish Danger: the Responsibility, 256–267
Roberts (Harry), 'A National Medical Service': a Reply to Dr. Brend, 394–406
Roberts (Lord), Our Dwindling Army, 249–255; his life, his example, and his last message, 1177–1185

SWI

Robertson-Scott (J. W.), Our Rural Problems and the War, 686–690; Our Nearest Neutral Neighbour and the War, 753–764; An Urgent Plea for State Sugar Factories, 868–882
Robins (Elizabeth), War Service at Home, 1113–1124
Roman Catholic Church and French politics, 13–28
Roscoe (E. S.), The Prize Court of Great Britain and Ireland, 1138–1146
Rowland-Brown (Lilian), English Letters to Etienne Dumont, 415–428
Royalist Revival, The, 29–50
Rural Problems, Our, and the War, 686–690
Ruthless Warfare and Forbidden Methods, 1186–1192

SACRED Bo Tree, The, 660–673
Scard (Frederic I.), Colonial Cane or Home-grown Beet, 1353–1359
Scott-James (R. A.), The Political Octopus: a Plea for True Liberalism in Politics, 307–316
Scutari, Durazzo, and Albanian Government, 458–467
Self, Some Considerations on the, 1331–1342
Sellers (Edith), The Murdered Archduke, 281–298; Experiments in Cheap Catering, 1123–1137
Seton-Karr (Sir Henry), Thoughts on the Land Question, 138–152
Sex after Death, 616–630
Shackleton (Sir Ernest), his Antarctic expedition, 166–180
Sichel (Edith), Emily Lawless, 80–100
Slavs, Teutons, and others, compared, 603–615
Sorabji (Cornelia), A Hindu Guru's Views of the Political Situation in India, 76–79
South Polar expeditions, British and Norwegian, 166–180
State Sugar Factories, An Urgent Plea for, 868–882
Stirling (Mrs.), A Georgian Scrap-Book, 192–216
Stone (Brigadier-General F. G.), The 'Guiltless' German People, 793–799
Sugar production at home and in the Colonies, 868–882, 1101–12, 1353–59
Sugar Question, The, 1095–1112
Sweated women-workers and economic laws, 384–393
Swietochowski (Dr. G. de), The English and the Others—through Polish Eyes, 603–615

TAR

TARIFF Question, The War and the, 883–892
Telephone, What is Wrong with the? 373–383
Theatrical profession and its emoluments, 638–642
Tilby (A. Wyatt), German Colonies and British Needs, 958–967
Torpedo, The Menace of the, 153–165
Trade and finance in England and Germany, 800–815
Treitschke, 776–781
Triple Entente and England's obligations, 1167–76
Tsingtau and its Significance, 1213–1226
Tuker (Mildred A. R.), Religions and the War, 1318–1330
Turkey, Russia, and Balkan States, 59–75

ULSTER and Civil War, 1–12, 256–267, 268–280

VANISHING Virtue, A, 429–443
Venetian Scholars and their Gardens, 837–852

WAECHTER (Sir Max), The Principal Lesson of the Balkan Wars, 59–75
Walfish Bay, The Destiny of, 580–594
Wallis (H. M.), A Naturalist in North Africa, 1343–1352
Walton (Rev. J. L.), The Case of Dr. Axham, 1227–1239
War, Adventures of refugees from the, 552–579
War and Arbitration, 1296–1306
War and future of Germany, 525–551
War and sufferings of middle classes, 511–524
War and the Tariff Question, The, 883–892
War as a refiner of nations, 489–510

WYA

War, Boy Scouts and the, 691–701
War Funds: Co-ordination or Chaos? 737–744
War, Opportunities of the, 868–892
War, Our Nearest Neutral Neighbour and the, 753–764
War Service at Home, 1113–1122
War, Some Issues of the, 1377–1406
War, The, and rural problems, 686–690
War, The Dominions and the, 702–712
War, The Inner Meaning of the, 730–736
War, The Moral Logic of, General von Bernhardi on, 1360–1376
Waste of the War, The, and the Trade of To-morrow, 1193–1206
Watson (Prof. Foster), The Humanists of Louvain, 765–775
Watson (William), Funeral March for Kaiser Wilhelm II., 932–940
Watts-Dunton (Theodore) and the Spirit of an Age, 674–685
Wedmore (Sir Frederick), The Louvre Enlarged, 407–414
Welsh Church and Parliament's reputation for justice, 228–232
Welsh (Jane), letters to Thomas Carlyle, 317–349
West Indian cane sugar and German beet sugar, 1095–1112
Whitehouse (J. H.), Belgium in War: a Record of Personal Experiences, 1147–1158
Whyte (A. F.), Some Issues of the War: Alsace and Lorraine, 1395–1406
Women's educational opportunities, school, college, university, 1060–73
Women's Emergency Corps for war service at home, 1113–1122
Women's Wages and the Laws of Supply and Demand, 384–393
Woodlands of Ireland and our timber imports, 643–659
Wyatt (Harold F.), 'God's Test by War': a Forecast and its Fulfilment, 489–510

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE AND CO. LTD., LONDON
COLCHESTER AND ETON